

OBSERVATORY

A FEW DON'TS FOR THE BOYS.

Do not:—

stay out later than 6:30 on Sunday evenings.

walk on the campus after dark.

bid the goodnight in near vicinity of Dorm or home. If you must say good-night, stand on the street, under the arc-light, and yell, only loud enough for the lady to hear.

have more than two dates with the same girl during one semester, and these not less than six weeks apart, because it is not wise to become infatuated.

squeeze her hand on parting, simply mutter, "Swell time; glad it didn't rain; so long."

wipe your dirty hands on your trousers. You know you were brought up better than that.

hesitate to wash your clothes frequently.

hang up clothes by a button hole or a belt loop.

Mary Alice: "I thot you said you'd go thru fire and water for me."

L. B.: "Show me a combination of the two and I will."

"You made me what I am to-day, I hope you're satisfied.

You wore and wore me down, until

My sole beneath me died;

You failed to give me decent care,

Tho I was good to you.

Please give better care to your next pair,

That's the curse of a worn-out shoe."

What do you think of Levi since he started parting his hair in the middle?
